Review Procedure

After the submission, manuscripts submitted to SUSJ will go through an internal review. If submitted papers meet the basic requirements of SUSJ they are sent out for double blind review from experts in the field. It is common for reviewers who recommend acceptance to also make this conditional on addressing possible errors or issues. If your reviewers make this recommendation then you will be given the opportunity to adequately respond to their feedback by a required date. Authors are required must make all the changes suggested by reviewers and they should send a detailed report indicating the changes made in the paper to SUSJ.

Submission and Publication Acceptance Agreements

Papers submitted to SUSJ for review and possible publication will not have been submitted for review anywhere else and, if accepted for review, will not be submitted elsewhere whilst the paper is undergoing review. The authors of papers accepted for Review will be asked to fill out, sign and return a submission agreement to this effect. The authors of those papers accepted for publication will also be asked to confirm in an publication acceptance agreement that the paper has not been and will not be published elsewhere. Publication in SUSJ transfers the right to SUSJ to distribute papers, but authors do retain their copyright.

Authors should send their papers to:

The General Director's Opening Message

In the name of ALLAH, the most merciful, the most compassionate.

Dear staff and visitors,

You are very welcome on our university website and we do hope you find it informative and easy to access. In the ear of technology, the exchange of knowledge via electronic means and as theses ways of communications have become so essential for the development of any society, we do hope that the university website reflects the true picture of our university's academic and non-academic events which would hopefully help in improving the services it provides to the community.

Despite all the challenges and difficulties, it facing, Sirte university is trying to pave its way towards excellence. This website provides a platform of communications and interaction with our visitors and keeping them up to date with all the events and activities in our university. Moreover, we are delighted to hear any feedback or suggestions/idea from our staff and visitor on how to improve our website.

Although we do acknowledge that it is many great challenges lies ahead of us, we do hope that our university becomes one of best universities locally, regionally and internationally in terms of the services it provides to the community and its adherence to the quality assurance criteria.

We again welcome our visitors from all walks of life and we are pleased to hear any comments/suggestions to make our website more pleasant and informative.

We ask Almighty ALLAH for the success and the ability to spread knowledge and education everywhere

Dr. Soliman M Al-Shateer

Editor in Chiefs comment.

Dear colleagues and scientific community of Sirte University; In this difficult time of COVID-19 pandemic, I'm honoured and so pleased to become an Editor in chief of our persistently growing Journal. On behalf of the editorial board, I would like to express our appreciation of your trust, and our dedication to Sirte University mission to strengthen and support our scholars and researchers.

As an editor's committee, we will provide unwavering support to the scientific community and we will provide our maximum effort to help young scholars publishing their work. We would like to ask all of you to participate and to continue your hard work and commitment to research and education. I'm truly optimistic about the strides we are making to get our Journal stronger and recognized. Together, we can make this happen. Our mission is to publish the best research and science information, and to present this information in understandable, useful formats. To these ends, Sirte University Scientific Journal, sets the highest standards for editorial, peer and statistics review processes to evaluate manuscripts for scientific accuracy, novelty and importance. Manuscript's submission, review and publication process are available in our website. Our staff will be happy to guide and help you throughout your work. Finally, we would like to thank the leaders of Sirte University and all university staff for their trust and anticipated collaboration to enrich our scientific community.

My best wishes to all of you.

Stay safe

Professor, Abdullah Ali Elamari.
