General Director's Word

In the name of Allah The Most Gracious The Most Merciful

All praise be to Allah and peace and Blessings be upon the Prophet Muhammed

Sirte University Scientific Journal is an official refereed journal. It published peer-reviewed research in the fields of humanities and applied sciences.

As one of its mission has been to improve the scientific research in order to broaden the people's knowledge and serve the local community, and since the scientific research has been widely recognized as of one of the main standards on which universities' performances and contributions are assessed in all over the world, we had to do our utmost to ensure the publication of the 1st issuance of 7th volume- Jun. 2017) which includes the humanity and sciences volumes.

It is worth mentioning that the SUSJ, in a very short time and with very limited resources, has made significant and tangible achievements, namely, the spearheading of research culture, exchanging of expertise, boosting the spirit of cooperation and encouraging researcher to publish their valuable research papers in different scientific fields.

As the University's President and the General Director of the journal, I am so delighted to present you with the current edition of the journal. It is also my great pleasure to extend my gratitude to the University's faculty members, graduate students, researchers and reviewers who have all contributed in the publication of this issue and hoping that the editorial board has selected the most valuable research papers to be published in this edition. I should mention here that we, very much, welcome any comments and/or suggestions which could help in improving the next editions.

Finally, I commend all the hard work and efforts exerted by the Editorial Board and to all people who have contributed, directly or indirectly, in bringing this issue into life.

Peace be upon you

The General Director

Sirte University Scientific Journal

Editor in Chief's Word

In the name of Allah The Most Gracious The Most Merciful

It remains my great honour to serve as Editor-in-Chief of the Sirte University Scientific Journal (SUSJ), and it is my pleasure to take this opportunity to thank everyone involved in the continuing success of the journal, and we would never have made it this far without the enthusiasm and assistance of the journal's Editorial Board, and its readers. There are two special groups who are also included in the above, our referees and our authors. Without the referees' valuable comments, the quality of the papers would not be as high as it is. Without the authors' choice of SUSJ in which to publish their best work, the journal's contribution to our community simply would not be as great as it is. It is also thanks to the hard work of both our authors and our referees that our publications enable all our readers to keep up with the latest developments within our sphere of research as early as possible.

We look forward to your most serious and effective efforts, which aspire members of the editorial board and its general director, also aspire to the university in the dissemination of scientific research in all fields of human and applied sciences.

Although every effort has been made to make this journal errors-free and as scientific as possible, no work is perfect and this journal is not an exception. Therefore, we appreciate it if you could give us your feedback, suggestions and ideas in order to improve the next issues. Finally, I wish all of you a healthy and prosperous 2017!

May Peace be Upon You
